THE TIFF.

His brow was bent, he hissed "by gad!"
You bet he was tremendous mad!
Her face was flushed, her heart on fire,
'Twas conflagration to come nigh her.
He lit a cigar all for a smoke,
And it make her cry and it made her choke.
A bottle of camphire the seized,
And snuffed it up her nose and sneezed.
"Brute?" was the succorse of her sniffs,
"Flit" interlarded all his puffs.

She stared at him, he glared at her,
She wouldn't budge, he wouldn't stir.
Puff, puff, puff, puff, puff, puff, puff,
Snuff, snuff, snuff, snuff, snuff, snuff, snuff.
They puffed and snuffed for hours and hours,
Till lost were puff and snuffing powers.

He dropped his eyes because he could,
She threw up hers because she would,
Between the two 'twas nip and tuck,
And who would win would be mere luck.

She hove a sigh—he hove one too;
They both felt better when they got through.

"Cruel!" she sobbed, with fainting snuff;
"Heartless!" he gasped with feeble puff.

He stroked his knees, she tapped her toes,
Then right up to their feet they rose.
He sidled that way, she sidled this,
And when they got sidled they swap'd a kiss.

"Sweet Nance," said he; she said, "Dear Jim!"
And he hugged her, and she hugged him.

"How silly of you!" they cried at a breath;
And they hugged each other almost to death.

Correspondent N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.

There is no longer any necessity for speculation as to the purpose of the President with reference to Mr. Stanton's continuing in the Cabinet. Mr. Johnson this morning, notified him in writing that his resignation as Secretary of War would be acceptable. Mr. Mr. Stanton has not been heard from on the subject, but his friends say he will resign, and that he is preparing a written response to the note of the President. In case Mr. Stanton goes out of the Cabinet Gen. Grant will be appointed to perform the duties of Secretary of War until the President shall have time to consider who he will name as the successor of Mr. Stanton.

The rupture between the President and Secretary Stanton is still the chief topic of conversation here. Stanton's friends, who have been with him to-day, state that he gives out that he will not resign. He says that if the President wished to get rid of him, he will have to do so by violating the law and removing him, for that he will never yield. On the other hand, the Johnson men who claim to be posterous to the President's opinion, assert that he, the President, will remove or suspend Stanton if he refuses to resign. The contemplated removal of Sheridan is lost sight of since it has become known that Johnson has stated that Stanton must go first, and all interest is centered in a climax to the Johnson-Stanton quarrel. The White House and War Department politicians are very active. Stanton has been run down with visitors most of the day.

Since writing the foregoing we learn that certain friends of Mr. Stanton who called on him to-day say he assured them he would not resign.

More Removals by Sheridan.

NEW ORLEANS Aug. 8 P. M.
Sheridan issued an order to-day removing Brevet Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, commanding sub-district of the Rio Grande, and Edward Daugherty, Judge of the 12th Judicial district of Texas, for denying the supremacy of the laws of Congress, and stating that they would not obey them when conflicting with the State laws of Texas, and openly denouncing the Government of the United States. He also removed the Chief of Police of New Orleans.

FREAK OF NATURE.—A child was born at Chippewa, Wis., a few days since, with a body, two heads and four arms. Just above the hips the body increased in size, the back bone branching out to right and left, and diverging sufficiently to give room for two shoulder blades between them, in their proper position, the two distinct forms beginning their separate existence just below the arm pits. In front, the body below the naval appeared natural. Above that point it gradually branched out into separate organizations, the breast bone being joined. The vital organs were all double. The shoulders and neck perfect, the heads well formed. The features regular and well developed, one head appearing to be that of a male, while the features of the other resembled those of a female. One side lived a few moments after birth. The other was born dead.

GENERAL GRANT AND IMPARTIAL SUFFRAGE.

A Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes as follows under date of July 31:

"Just before the adjournment of Congress three or four of the oldest Republicans in it called upon General Grant, this morning, notified him in writing that his resignation as Secretary of War would be acceptable. Mr. Mr. Stanton has not been heard from on the subject, but his friends say he will resign, and that he is preparing a written response to the note of the President. In case Mr. Stanton goes out of the Cabinet Gen. NEGROES AS OFFICE HOLDERS.

The N. Y. Herald says:

"We have not heard of a single black candidate elected or nominated for any office in the Tennessee election. Hereto a fact which speaks well for the intelligence and sagacity of the blacks, holding as they did the balance of power in this contest. They are, it thus appears, in no hurry to push their claims for office until they establish their rights as citizens to the satisfaction of their white neighbors. They are ready to yield something for the present to the southern prejudices of many generations; and from this conciliatory spirit we look for the best results to both races of the South."

Counting is an irregular active transitive verb, indicative mood present tense, third person singular number, and agrees with all the girls don't it?

The Republican Congressional Committee is actively engaged in supplying political documents to, and in promoting the harmony and the organization of the loyal men of the South. There is an earnest desire on the part of Congress for the early and complete restoration of the States to full fellowship in the Union. In work to this end, on the basis laid down in the reconstruction measures, the loyal men of the South can rely upon the active sympathy and the aid of the Republicans of the North.

Did it Ever Occur to You.

That the main source of revenue of a newspaper is its advertising patronage, and that the subscription list, and sale of paper each morning, do but little more than pay for the paper used in printing! And yet men—sharp financers and business men—think nothing of going into a newspaper office and requesting a notice of their wares and merchandise, or of some matter or pet scheme by which they hope to realize something, not thinking they are asking for so much money out of the proprietor. Such cases occur every day. It would be just as reasonable to step into a store and ask the owner for a bag of coffee a dozen pattern, or ham, or anything he has for sale. The newspaper is not wholly a philanthropic institution, as very many persons are disposed to regard it. It dispenses a vast deal of charity, but is not conducted exclusively for the benefit of the community it which it is located. Some return may not reasonably be expected for the good that is sought to be done by the labor bestowed upon, and the capital invested in a well conducted journal. A large expenditure is necessary to the publication of a newspaper. Every line put in type cost money, and must be paid for in cash—there is no credit in anything that goes into the printing and publishing business, and notwithstanding this fact, inconsiderate people

The Issue.

The Republican Party and go in the Union, or the Rebel Party and stay out. Which will you support?

FAIR NOTICE.

Many of our subscribers have been taking our paper since the commencement of its publication. We now say to one and all who have, that unless they come forward and make settlement with us by Court in September that we will most positively place their accounts in the hands of an officer for collection. This we give as a fair notice to all concerned.

To the People of Rutherford and Polk Counties.

Desiring to enlarge our circulation as much as possible, and believing that it can be done during the registration of voters, we earnestly appeal to our friends at each precinct in this and Polk County, to subscribe for the Star. Mr. John Logan, one of the Registers for Polk County will receive and receipt for advertisements and subscriptions for the Star.—Mr. J. C. L. Harris, Chairman of the Board of Registers for this County will receive and receipt for advertisements and subscriptions for the Star in this County.

These gentlemen will press our claims upon the people as they go round recruiting and we hope our friends will assist us by subscribing for the Star. A great deal more good can be effected by increasing the circulation of the Star, and at this particular time, while registration is going on and the members of the Convention soon to elect, it will be a good time for our friends to use their best efforts to extend our circulation.—We hope this appeal will not be passed by unheeded.

ANOTHER THREAT OF CONFISCATION.

A dispatch from Washington says: "A recent letter from Hon. Thaddeus Stevens to a Radical friend in this city states that a bill will be presented at the opening of the November congressional session for confiscating the property of all Southern ex-slaveholders who dismiss the freedmen for voting the Republican ticket. Senator Wilson, it is understood, strongly favors this course. The names of such ex-rebels are to be collected by the military commanders for reference."

From what Senator Wilson said in his speech at Raleigh two months ago, we are certain that this dispatch is all so.

The colored men will be fully protected by the Republican Congress; and if it is necessary, it will strip every man of his possessions who endeavors to deprive the colored men from exercising their liberty at the ballot box. We have no doubt from the instructions of General Sickles to the Registers of this State, that the names of all men who dismiss the freedmen for voting the Republican ticket, will be collected and forwarded to Congress for consideration. We do not want confiscation, but if men will bring it on themselves we cannot help it. We hope there will be no need of any such action in this county.

Registration of voters will commence on the 15th instant. Let every friend of peace and reconstruction register his name promptly.

Reasons Why the Whites Should Support the Republican Party.

We insist at this time it is the duty of every man who desires to see this country free from the turmoil, agitation, and excitement which is now upon it to support the Republican party.

Because the leaders of the Republican party are of and from the people.

Because the Republican party is composed of the hardy, honest yeomanry of the country, and not built up of the original slave aristocrats of the North or the aristocracy of the South, whose foundation was human slavery.

Because the claims of every man are weighed by the Republican party according to his merits, and not because he is from a family of influence and station, or on account of race or color.

Because the Republican party is a friend to the industrial arts of the country, and seeks to raise those who really are the supporters of the country, and upon whom many look down upon because of their vocation.

Because the Republican party is doing all it can to inaugurate a system of public schools by which the children of the poor as well as the rich can be educated and fitted for all the stations which any citizen of this free and great republic enjoys.

Because the Republican party put down the rebellion.

Because the Republican party is in favor and intends that every man without regard to race or former condition shall vote and hold office according to his merits; and not on account of any property or educational qualification.

Because the Republican party is in favor of equal rights before the law and at the ballot box without regard to race or color; that every man shall have the same rights and liberties as any other man.

These and many other reasons which we could give, we think are sufficient to convince our readers that the only safety for the country is in the success of the Republican party. We have no doubt but that the majority of the hardy, honest yeomanry of the country will vote the Republican ticket. We have given the reasons because we never advise any line of policy without giving our reasons therefor.

The Crops.

We are reliably informed by a gentleman who has travelled through South Carolina from Charlotte to Greenville, that the crops between Charlotte and Columbia are not so very good. Between Columbia and Greenville the crops are very fine. Between Greenville and this place the crops are excellent. The crops in this portion of the State are very good, and will produce, we think more than an average yield.

The Wilmington Post.

We have before us this republican journal, published in Wilmington, N. C. The Post is edited by Col. E. A. Paul, formerly a correspondent of the New York Tribune, and a writer of more than ordinary ability. The Post makes a neat appearance, and we wish it the most entire success.

Election Tickets.

In the recent election in Tennessee, the straight radical tickets were stamped with a broad-axe, meaning that the axe is laid at the root of the tree. This was done to prevent counterfeiting, and for the benefit of such of the colored people as could not read.

We think this arrangement would prove beneficial in the coming elections in this State. We call the attention of the Republican party to the fact.

Let every Union man Register— you cannot vote unless you Register first.

Bring Out Your Candidates.

Registration will soon commence. It is presumed that every gentleman who will consent to be a candidate, will desire to secure as large a vote as possible. We believe it impossible to obtain a full registration in North Carolina, without an active canvass, before registration, by the candidates for the Convention. Decent people, who are properly interested in the welfare of the country, cannot consent to employ the agencies of secret political associations, to do dirty work for them. So far as the members of the secret leagues and other such political agencies are concerned, they may be managed by the leaders and whipped into the traces as they please; but free-men will not be controlled by such agencies. Too many of our people are faint-hearted, discouraged, or too much disgusted to register or take any part in the matter, unless they are urged to the duty by our wisest and best men. We therefore urge that, in every County in the State, proper candidates for the Convention be brought out at once.—Sentinel.

We hope the candidates of the Sentinel will come out immediately. We would like to know who they are, and hear what they have to say. In this part of the country such men as the Raleigh Sentinel looks upon as its friends cannot make a track. No man here will register at the instance of the Sentinel and its rebel friends. Like nearly all the articles of the Sentinel, the above contains a vile falsehood. The members of the Leagues are more decent and have the good of the country more at heart than the editor of the traitorous Sentinel. Free-men will be controlled by a sense of Justice, Freedom and Equality, and not be made the tools of such men as Wm. A. Graham. The Sentinel, Gov. Worth, and the whole State government belongs to Wm. A. Graham. When he heard a pinch of snuff, Bro. Pell can be heard to sneeze all over Raleigh. We hope all will register for Bro. Pell's sake.

Register and Vote.

"Let every one who can, register and vote, white as well as black. Vote for a Convention, and vote for the Congressional plan of reconstruction. Those who can register, and do not, will not only sin against their own interest, but will do an injury to society—for which, upon reflection, they will regret the remainder of life. We are a Conservative, and are for a restoration of the Union, upon the Congressional plan, since no other terms are likely to be offered the South. With us, it matters much, who shall be sent to Congress; but, we have no alternative than to submit and hope for the best, even if the worst shall come. Any settlement of the question, it seems to us, will be more desirable than uncertainty, suspense, and military rule."

The above is from the Statesville American. We are glad it has seen the error of its way, and now comes out for the congressional plan of reconstruction. We trust, as the cause of republicanism grows and triumphs in the "Good Old North State," that the American will give its whole influence to the cause of the Republican party. We hope the American will advise its friends to stand aside and allow the Republicans to reconstruct this State upon the Congressional plan, without any hindrance whatever. We hail with delight the change which the recent action of Congress is working upon the people of this State. We can see no good reason why this State will not be restored to her place in the Union by the first day of April, 1868.

Every colored citizen who wishes to secure the rights of citizenship should Register.

More Mischief.

The Raleigh Sentinel, the official organ of his so called Excellency, Jonathan Worth, is endeavoring to stir up more discord and strife among the people of this State.

The Sentinel prefers conservative candidates. We are not surprised at this. We know the Sentinel prefers anything that takes of rebellion to that of Unionism.—The Sentinel desires every white man to register with the view of defeating the State Constitution to be formed by the coming Convention. The Republicans will do nothing but make a Constitution that will now forever place the government of this State in the hands of men who are "unmistakably loyal men."

Bro. Pell hopes that a "literal compliance with the terms will bring us freedom from turmoil, agitation, perplexing doubts and harassing fears." Bro. Pell hopes to elect a majority of men to the Convention who will do just what is necessary to have the State admitted into the Union, and leave the Constitution so that the rebels may again get control of the State. If there should be a large majority of Republicans in the coming Convention, the Constitution which they will frame will no doubt be such as will in the eyes of Bro. Pell and his rebel set, "degrade and ruin us," but should the conservatives have a majority, no matter what the constitution they make may have in it, will be considered by Bro. Pell as all right.

Of all the lying hypocrites we ever knew, in our opinion, the editors of the Sentinel are the worst. The Sentinel, Wm. A. Graham, Jonathan Worth, and a few others are more to blame for the present condition of North Carolina, than any other four men in the State. The Sentinel was the dirty tool of the rebel party to defeat Gov. Holden.—It stirred up strife and discord throughout the State by supporting Worth for Governor, and now at this time when it sees that its day of power is over and that but few months will elapse before it will be consigned to the most disgraceful oblivion, it comes out and says that "all it has done was done to promote the public good." What hypocrisy! Was there ever the like known before?

To comfort Bro. Pell, we will say unto him in the language of the Bible "that his race is well nigh run." He has served a purpose that no other man who professes to be a Christian and a minister of the Gospel would have done. He commenced the publication of the Sentinel for the purpose of making money. Thus far rebellion has triumphed, and the Sentinel has made money. At the price of thousands of treasure and many valuable lives, has the course which the Sentinel advocated succeeded up to this time. It made no difference which side. The one that promised the most money was the one. When the election for the Convention is over, Bro. Pell will find that he and his friends have been left far in the rear. The Republican party will carry this State as Gov. Brownlow carried Tennessee. Not less than forty thousand majority will be cast against the party of Graham, Vance, Eaton, Manly, Turner and others. The tottering walls bespeak the coming crash; the thirty families who have ruled this State for so many years see the doom. The scepter has departed, and with it all the remains of secession, slavery and treason. With the Republican party victorious in this State, everything will flourish like a green bay tree. The hand of "peace men" of '64 are rising now in their might, they are battling now for what they dared not in the days of Confederate despotism. The Conservatives of those days are Republicans now; and the Vance men of those days are copperheads, traitors, and democrats. There is no help for it. The great cause of Freedom, Union, Liberty and Equality will triumph in this State like that of Tennessee. We call upon every Republican to register and vote, and the work is done. Bro. Pell, you have had your day, and now if you would do your country any service, come out and support the Republican party and then you will never do what you have never done, support the cause of Union, Liberty and Equality. If you will obstruct reconstruction you will be ground to powder.

The cholera is raging in Memphis.—Forty deaths are reported last week.

HENDERSONVILLE PIONEER.

This journal has been removed to Asheville, and will be issued hereafter at that place.

This removal cannot fail to be of a vast benefit to the Republican party in that portion of the State, and we bespeak for the Pioneer a larger and more successful career in its new home.

Temperance.

We had the pleasure of hearing a lecture upon this subject at the Methodist Church in this place yesterday evening by Gen. R. B. Vance. We are glad to announce that he received names enough to justify him in organizing a Council of "Friends of Temperance."

The Council will meet every Tuesday night when all will have an opportunity to join.

STANTON AND SHERIDAN.

Will the President Remove Them?

The statement which has found its way into some of the public prints, to the effect that the President has ordered that no further communication shall be held with Mr. Stanton, is, we are satisfied, inaccurate. So long as he is permitted to remain in office official relations must necessarily subsist. It does not follow, however, that he will attend Cabinet consultations. These are not held in virtue of law. They are purely discretionary with the President, who is neither obliged to confer with his Secretaries in formal meetings, nor is he restricted to the heads of the Departments in seeking advice upon public affairs. The President we believe, will deal with his refractory War Secretary in another and more direct way.—It is understood from some of Mr. Stanton's friends, that that gentleman is not entirely beyond the fear of popular scorn, and may yet reconsider his refusal to resign, however repugnant such a step may be to his inveterate love of official position. We learn from a usually well informed source that it is the purpose of Mr. Johnson to allow this whole matter to remain in abeyance for a few days, giving time for reflection on the part of Mr. Stanton, and the friends who advise him as to the course he should pursue. If, in the course of two or three days he shall still persist in the refusal to resign, the President will suspend him, by giving him notice, substantially, that he is thereby suspended from the further execution of the functions of the office of Secretary of War and that the reasons of this suspension will be submitted to the Senate at the next session of Congress.

The sneers of the Radical press in reference to the delay in the removal of Gen. Sheridan are quite out of place. It seems, that so far from the delay being the result of any change of determination as to him, it is referable solely to the caution proper to be observed in designating his successor.—In this connection we may say that telegraphic dispatches from this city announcing the probable appointment of Gen. Roseau are incorrect. They doubtless grew out of the fact that his presence has been requested at Washington. He comes on other and altogether different business.—Wash. Intel. 9th.

Selling Jerusalem.

European correspondents at Belgrade give currency to a report that while the Turkish Council were considering by what means they might obtain money to defray the Sultan's visit to Paris, a proposal was made by one of the high officers to sell Jerusalem to Russia. It is further said that the report is generally credited, and that Turkey is believed to be willing to sell Jerusalem and Jaffa for one hundred million piasters. Gen. Ignatieff and Ali Pacha are reported to be busy with the preliminaries for the purchase now.

The Best Specimen of Kentucky Loyalty.

The campaign in Kentucky will develop many odd things but nothing probably better worth notice than the queer phases of Kentucky loyalty. It appears already that the worse thing a candidate can say against his opponent is that he did something likely to help the Union cause, nothing seems so prejudicial so like to damage the candidate before the voters as the suspicion that he did not heartily desire the success of the Confederates. The other day a democrat charged his opponent a former contractor, perhaps, with having sold to the United States government horses that were to be used against the rebellion. Here was a bombshell, and it is evident the case would have been against the furnisher of horses if this story had gone abroad without contradiction. But the maligned candidate was equal to the occasion. The charge enabled him to put himself right before the voters, and his defense will furnish future history with the best extant specimen of real Kentucky loyalty. He admitted that he had had a contract to furnish the United States with horses and that he had the animals called for, but he further shows by facts and dates that he had so managed the delivery of the horses, "had so arranged the place and time as to secure their capture by John Morgan, who was then on a raid in Kentucky." Here is a model contractor—and if this man's election is not safe we do not understand the people of that chivalrous State. Sure a man who not only helped the confederacy, but made Uncle Sam pay him for it, is entitle to the entire respect of that loyal community that managed throughout the whole war to be on neither side when hard hits were in vogue and yet gave to the Richmond authorities by illicit trade across the lines, as much material aid as went in through the Atlantic blockade. That was the direction in which Kentucky chivalry showed it self with greatest brilliancy, and as the candidate boast the best achievement to the real Kentucky way, we submit that he is the most peculiarly fit man to represent his State in Congress.—N. Y. Herald.

Fashionable parties.

Thackeray discourses as follows concerning the fashionable parties in England, and much of what he says is equally applicable here.

"The system of evening parties is a false and absurd one. Ladies may frequent them professionally with an eye to a husband; but a man is a fool who takes a wife out of such assemblies, having no other means of judging of the object of his choice. You are not the same person in your white crêpe and satin slip as you are in your morning dress. A man is not the same in his tight coat and feverish glazed pumps and stiff white waistcoat, as he is in his green, double-breasted frock, his old black ditto, or his woollen jacket. And a man is doubly a fool who is in the habit of frequenting evening parties, unless he is forced thither in search of a lady to whom he is attached, or unless he is compelled to go by his wife. A man who loves dancing may be set down to be a fool and the fashion is greatly going out with the increasing good sense of the age. Do not say that he who lives at home, or frequents clubs in lieu of balls is a brute, and has not a proper respect for the female sex, on the contrary, he may respect it most sincerely. He that a woman appears to most advantage not among those whom she cannot care about, but among those whom she loves. He thinks her beautiful when she is at home making tea for her old father. He believes her to be charming when she is singing a simple song at her piano, but not when she is screeching at an evening party. He thinks by far the most valuable part of her is her hand and kind simple heart, my dear, shines in conversation better than the best of wit. He admires her best in her intercourse with her family and her friends, and detests the miserable, twaddling slips that he is obliged to hear from and utter to her in the course of a ball, and avoids and despises such meeting."

A WORD FROM A SICK MAN. — It was only a single sentence that fell upon the ear of the servant in the family of Payson as he brought him a glass of water during one of his days of illness. "May you never ask in vain for a drop of water to cool your tongue. It was a word, a brief sentence, yet it proved a word of salvation to the person to whom it was addressed.

Remedy for a Felon.

A lady who has been trouble for some time, by a felon on her finger, gives a simple remedy, which enabled her to obtain sleep for the first time in many nights. It was to cut a hole in a lemon, and wear it on the finger like a thimble—the felon being encased in the fruit.

If you feel miserable, do not keep quiet in your unhappiness, but make those around you as uneasy as yourself—there is nothing like distributing our blessings.

At YOUNG LADY returning to her country home after a sojourn in the City was hardly recognised by her friends. In place of a coarse rustic face she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the causes of so great a change she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance a hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the entire it draws from it all its impurities kindly healing the same and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear soft smooth and beautiful. Reparator Capilli

Throw away your false frizzles, your switches, your wigs—Destructive of comfort and not worth a fig; Come aged, come youthful; come ugly and fair, And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen off) and forcing growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard, witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult as innumerable of the different preparations, advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Repator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be retained you on application providing entire satisfaction is not given. Address, W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. West Faunette Street, SYRACUSE, N. Y. [no 38-1y-saco
